SMALL BUSINESS LECTURE SERIES

EVER THOUGHT ABOUT OWNING
YOUR OWN BEAUTY SALON?

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26
1:00 - 2:30 P.M.

On September 26 the Cleveland Public Library Hough Branch will be hosting a program that focuses on small business ownership in the hair care industry. If you are interested in the business of beauty then this program is for you.

The "Small Business Lecture Series" will draw on the proven expertise of local beauty salon owners. Participants will hear the business histories of our speakers, learn what worked and what didn't, and obtain free resources that can increase your chances of running an enduring and profitable beauty salon business. This program is meant to be informal, with a lengthy question and answer section following each presentation.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 1:00-2:30 P.M.

Speaker:

Monica D. Green
Kinky Curly Straight Salon, Owner

Mrs. Green has over 20 years experience in the beauty salon industry; entrepreneurship and economic independence have been a driving force throughout her life. She is the owner of the Kinky Curly Straight Salon and over the years has established a variety of other businesses spanning from childcare to consulting. She has a Bachelors degree in Communications and a Masters in Business Administration.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 1:00-2:30 P.M.

Speaker:

Ann Marie Campbell
Ann Marie's Skylight Barber Shop, Owner

Ms. Campbell is the owner of Anne Marie's Skylight Barber Shop. She has been doing business at her current location since 2001. Catering to the whole family, Ann Marie has over 25 years of experience as a barber and cosmetologist making her one of the more versatile barbers in Cleveland.
