

Upcoming Regional Event

Northeast Ohio Food Congress

"Promoting a healthy, equitable, and sustainable food system in Northeast Ohio"

November 7th & 8th, 2008

FRIDAY: Regional events will highlight innovative and successful NEO food operations ranging from urban farming on old parking lots in Cleveland to newly formed farm co-ops in Geauga County.

SATURDAY: Join a group of 200 delegates from around the NEO region at Hiram College for a day for learning, collaborating, and planning for the future of our food system.

❖ Keynote speakers include:

Wayne Roberts: Director of the Toronto Food Policy Council

David Kline: Organic farmer and publisher of Farming Magazine

OBJECTIVES:

- ❖ Build a culture of collaboration between urban and rural counties in Northeast Ohio.
- ❖ Organize county food policy councils to promote a stronger regional food system.
- ❖ Learn about successful and innovative food initiatives and projects from around the region

Questions: Contact the Cleveland-Cuyahoga Food Policy Coalition @ 216.368.1918

