

Rally to encourage Cleveland City Council to reconsider the AMP-OH Contract concerning the proposed 960-megawatt conventional pulverized coal-fired power plant that would be built in Meigs County near the Ohio River.

Come meet Elisa Young, founder of Meigs CAN (Citizen Action Now) and resident of Meigs County and hear the community perspective regarding this proposed coal plant.

WHEN: Thursday, Feb. 21 from 7-9 p.m.

WHERE: Trinity Cathedral, 2230 Euclid Ave., in Conference Rooms A & B.

For more information on this event contact Stefanie Spear at 216-387-1609 or spear@earthwatchohio.org. Visit www.earthwatchohio.org to click on a link to our petition site or visit the Ohio Citizen Action website at www.ohiocitizen.org for additional information on the AMP-OH contract issue.

For updated and ongoing information concerning Meigs County, contact Elisa Young at 740-416-2694 or elisa1@yahoo.com

Southern Elementary School in Racine, Meigs County, Ohio.

Photo courtesy of Elisa Young, Meigs CAN - megigscan@yahoo.com.